

OJ 15/15, [3] - Handwritten postcard from Weisse to Schenker, dated April 17, 1914

http://www.schenkerdocumentsonline.org/documents/correspondence/OJ-15-15_3.html

{ recto }

{ verso }

Lieber Meister [Heinrich Schenker]!¹

Für Sicherheit: das betreffende Wort, anschauen[,] kommt nur in der Ihnen bereits bekannten Gestalt vor: #####.²

Allerherzlichst Ihr
[signed:] Hans [Hans Weisse]

{ recto }

{ verso }

Dear Master [Heinrich Schenker],¹

To confirm: the word in question, "anschauen," exists only in the form that is already known to you: #####.²

Most cordially, your
[signed:] Hans [Hans Weisse]

Citation

Schenker Documents Online, OJ 15/15, [3], transcr. Ian Bent and William Drabkin, transl. William Drabkin

http://www.schenkerdocumentsonline.org/documents/correspondence/OJ-15-15_3.html

Accessed: 05 October 2024

Footnotes

¹ Receipt of this postcard is not recorded in Schenker's diary.

² #####, the Greek infinitive from which the word "theory" is derived. There is nothing in Schenker's diary or lessonbook at this time which explains this message.